CEDAR HILL HIKING CLUB OUTING

Mr. Pierson, of the Design and Construction Division, has graciously invited us out to his private club at Cedar Hill on August 5.
There will be swimming and perhaps boating.
Don't forget and bring your Wheaties or whatever you can beg borrow or steal from your butcher. This will be our last get-together before cool weather so let's all come out for a good time.

We will meet at the end of the Cherokee busline, Hampton and Gravois, at 9:30 A. M.
Cedar Hill is 32 miles out of St. Louis. Anyone desiring to go, please call Jeanne Meyerson on Extension 316. We are attempting to go by automobile and if you have one available, please let us know right away.

Transportation (round trip) will be 50 cents.

TO THE MOST AUGUST EDITOR OF SPAN:

We of the COD are a forgotten man -
We've tried everything from taking a snooze
To tightrope walking to get into the news.
But still somehow we seem to miss -
We'll have to admit we've failed in this,
For when it comes to "Didjaknowthat"
We're nearly always left sitting flat.
Somehow or other we've kind of a yon
To be of the race of Remembered Men.
The interest in SPAN on the eleventh floor
Would rise with a rush if we made it more.

DIDJAKNOWTHAT:

No longer can it be said "see you in the funnies" - no siree, we're on the Big Time now and almost but not quite made the photogravure. While 'twas the Greeks bearing gifts about whom we warned it appears that harbored in our midst has been a Trojan horse filled with prodigious promoters. But look closely and you will have no trouble (unless super-myopic) in discerning the fine Italian hand of the little ol' Chamber of Commerce (may their sons be gremlins and their daughters ride broom sticks, which also goes for the M. M'ers who aided and abetted in that one). And boy, oh! boy how that flicker man must have been hopped up or was it just the soft focusing which made some of our darlinest rogues (a mischievous playful person, says N. Webster) look actually benign. Such innocence one seldom encounters as that which shines from the countenances of "Blick" and the Squire of U. City and while they may have been scrutinizing plans and specs 'tis an even bet that what went on in the old beans would never pass even a liberal censor. Those were also nice flickers of the "second mortgages from the corner" which H. Lambertson and B. B. have acquired and while Harry looks as though the whole thing were a big surprise it couldn't be or how could anyone have found any section of the Fins as busy as they look - not a chance, just plain propaganda. And one knows it had to be an inside job when Dan Teare has his "pitcher" took sans some farm tour equipment and with his coat in evidence. For our money we'll take B.B. Neal who just turned his back on the whole affair. But keep hoping boys and girls, even this cloud may have a silver lining for the good burghers have at last broken down and confessed to slums - yes, slums right in this metropolis and if and when demolition sets in perhaps we won't have a place in which to carry on the program and then 'twill be eastward-ho and the Promised Land... If you hear music now when calling Region I. of the A. P. Diviz be not alarmed for one R. Billhimer that maker and singer of songs, has joined the ranks of the polishers and from now on 'twill be musical tone which greets one on the telephone rather than the grunt to which we have become accustomed. The M. B. Diviz must be quite remiss in not sending those boys a copy of their erudite dissertation on how and when to answer the telephone.....Either SPAN'S perspicuity or Lt. Bob MacClinchies perspicacity has gone askew for he says we have him rixed up - is he kidding? Wants to know if he gets an asterisk on his 10th birthday and not knowing the answer to that one as we did not officiate, can only promise that come next 6th of March, Robert will get birthday greetings smack on the front page and a nice big fat asterisk and a footnote which will explain how long he has labored (?) for Uncle S. and how many of those years were with REA..... Zelda Krinowitz has us in a dither in passing on a suggestion from Lt. Bruce Watkins now on furlo from TSD.."Suggest to SPAN that they capitalize all NAMES and charge them $5.00..." Now, Mr. Anthony, our problem is do we charge the owners of the names the five clams or do Bruce and Zelda have a racket to collect from SPAN who is lunny? If the former it looks as though LT.WATKINS could send us the fiver immediately, if not sooner.....Lt. H. C. Bauer who signs himself "On military furlo, I Hope!" wants to know if he has to give back his presents or didn't he have a birthday on June 14th, and what do we mean taking away a year from him. Chun, you nearly had us there and we started to make apologies for the M. B. Diviz from whence cometh our information but now we find you will have to write to your big boss, Mr. Nick, on account of you're a barrister and have only a speaking acquaintance with the dyed-in-the-wool REAers. This is a dandy way to carry on correspondence - just as private as a gold fish bowl.....While everyone else sings "Don't Fence Me In" that "Wicked" Wicker of the Diviz of VIP tries to show the world he neither suffers from the heat wave or claustrophobia and has gathered his acolytes together in one minute office....or could it be he likes to cuddle? HERE, THERE AND EVERYWHERE: Lou Knowles of our Merchant Marines on furlo in St. L. after tripping to Antwerp, Brussels, London, Houston (that's in Texas), etc. - get's around, doesn't he; Georgia Kick with Mexican jumping beans in her shoes every time the telephone rings on account of she expects one of the transports to transport her soldier boy back here soon, D. A. Nicholson visiting from the Liaison Office; ditto for Irene Oelke; Evelyn McLain, former TSDer, paying a visit to St. L; R. Peiter with a healthy sun tan after vacationing in the east; a card from J. Cadilla, former Latin-American trainee, which shows a "beautiful air conditioned and modern office building in San Juan" and which reminds one of the B'mens Annex on account of it's so different; Alta Brown and Fred Hamlin middle-aisling down Texas way; Walt Bigelow and Rose Mary Dodds diagraming all their sentences now with Prof. Plotka correcting - (NEVER) - their lessons; the terrific load off everyone's mind now that that hatching has occurred at 9th and Locust..'twas certainly a comfort to M. Roussin to find out what it was all about; Kathy Brasier a. l'ing with her sailor boy, Billy Lineback, S l/C, who also made one of the village gazettes recently but for why was not reported; Peggy Fotsch's one and only now entertaining the armies in Europe with his F. Sinatra's yodelin'; Jennie Stanek brown as a berry after a. l'ing at a Dude Ranch; that in-such-a-hurry-gal, D. Carmack, who can't wait to open doors so just kicks out the glass in L. Bean's office door; Lonnie Ameln another femme who gave her vacation time to tour the army hospitals with the USO summer show, Vive La Ameln; word that B. Horn, used to be Charioteer on Elevator #3, is improving down Tuscon way- Cheerio -
